

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

---

JEVON JACKSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

DEBRA GEMPELER, ANTHONY MELI
and JOHN O'DONOVAN,

09-cv-602-slc

Defendants.

---

Plaintiff Jevon Jackson has been proceeding pro se on a claim that defendants disciplined him for confessing violent thoughts, in violation of the First Amendment. In an October 29, 2010 order, I granted plaintiff's motion for appointment of counsel and stayed further proceedings in order to locate counsel for plaintiff.

Anthony Gaughan and Kendall Harrison, members of the Wisconsin Bar, have agreed to represent plaintiff, with the understanding that they will serve with no guarantee of compensation for their services. It is this court's intention that the appointment of these attorneys to represent plaintiff extend to proceedings in this court only.<sup>1</sup>

Plaintiff should understand that because I am appointing counsel to represent him, no longer may he communicate directly with the court. He must work directly with his lawyers and must permit them to exercise their professional judgment to determine which matters are appropriate to bring to the court's attention and in what form. Plaintiff does not have the right to require counsel to raise frivolous arguments or to follow every directive he makes. He should be prepared to accept the strategic decisions made by his lawyers even if he disagrees with some of them. Plaintiff should understand that it is highly unlikely that this court would appoint another lawyer to represent him if he chooses not to work with these lawyers. The court will schedule a status conference to reset the schedule in this lawsuit.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that Anthony Gaughan and Kendall Harrison are appointed to represent plaintiff in this case. All proceedings in this case are STAYED pending a status conference, at which time a new schedule will be set for moving this case to resolution.

Entered this 22nd day of November, 2010.
